giant-killers

Newport a dog's life. Picture: CHARLES LEY

WYRAWRI

STEVE PERRIN—hero of Wycombe Wanderers' 3—1 win over Newport—could easily have been facing Brian Clough's team on Saturday.

Two-goal Perrin was

Two-goal Perrin was with Walton until he went to Borough Road College to train as a PE teacher.

21, said: "I we Walton to teacher,

Perrin, 21, said: "I had to leave Walton to play for the college. It was compulsory. When I completed my course I joined Wycombe, And I'm glad I did. They have a fantastic set-up."

Brian Lee hoss of the fantastic set-up."

Brian Lee, boss of the bubbling Isthmian League amateurs, would love a crack at Brighton in the next round.
"Brian Clough is an old friend and a few years ago he brought Derby here for a-friendly. They wou 6—0 so you can see I'm out for some revenge."

Billy Lucas, Newport manager, said: "I don't envy anyone who has to take on Wycombe on their sloping pitch.

"They made the most of its advantage against.

"They made the most of its advantage against us."